He had not then fully qualified himself for confirmation. He completed the prescribed tests only in May last availing himself of the grace year allowed, in addition to the period of probation, under Rule VII of the Mysore Civil Service Rules. The date from which his confirmation is to take effect has thus to be decided in accordance with Cl. (b) of the rule laid down in G. O. No. G. 5105-52. P. M. 25-10-32 d. 7. 3. 1911. The examinations passed by him last May & the dates on which they were respectively held are noted below:

Kannada Exam^n - - - 21st " "

2 The date of the last of the prescribed examinations passed by him being the 21st May 1912 his confirmation should under the rule referred to above take effect from that date.

Submitted to His Highness.

The accompanying papers relate to the confirmation of Mr. B.T. Kesava Iyengar, Probationary Assistant Commissioner as Assistant Commissioner, fifth class, Schedule A, and the grant of another year's grace as a special case to Mr. T.G. Rama Iyer to enable him to complete the tests.

2. Messrs. T.G. Rama Iyer and B.T. Kesava Iyengar headed the list of successful candidates at the Mysore Civil Service Examination, held in November 1909, and were appointed as Probationary Assistant Commissioners, fifth class, Schedule A, under Government Notification dated 5th January 1910. No.G 3502/G.M.42-09-34. Neither of them had passed all the qualifying departmental tests before the expiry of the two years as required under Rule VII of the Civil Service Rules of 1907, and a further year's grace was allowed.

3. Mr. B.T. Kesava Iyengar completed the remaining tests in the examinations held during last May and thus is entitled to confirmation with effect from 21st May which is the date on which the last of the qualifying examinations, i.e. Canarese examination was held - vide Government Order No.G 5105-52/G.M.25-10-32 dated 7th

4. As regards Mr. T.G. Rama Iyer, it is to be regretted that he had again failed to fully qualify himself. In 1911 he appeared for Revenue, Criminal, Civil Parts I and II, and Registration examinations and passed in all of them except Registration. During the present year of grace, he appeared for Accounts and Registration. He passed in the former but failed ~~once~~ again in Registration, and has thus to pass that test before qualifying himself for confirmation.

5. Under Rule VII of the Civil Service Rules of 1907, his name is liable to be removed from the list of Assistant Commissioners. But it is worthy of note that the Registration test is comparatively a minor examination and that it is strange that a man of Mr. Rama Iyer's capacity should have failed in that test twice running. Under these circumstances and in view of the fact that all the officers under whom Mr. Rama Iyer was serving have spoken of his services in appreciative terms, I am of opinion that another year's grace may be given to him as a special case.

6. Both the Councillors agree to the above proposals which may be graciously sanctioned.
